Red Cross Has Active Year

The Junior Red Cross sponsored a dance last fall and cleared $15.75, which they gave to the World Children's Fund. They made 325 nut cups for the veterans Hospital in Sheridan and bean bags for the State Training School in Lander. A successful membership campaign was waged in JCHS. The book cart for the Gray Ladies at the local hospital was made by Denis Harriet, a Sophomore representative.

Suspense gripped everyone as they watched Celente (Anna Jacobson) in her weird trances and the mysterious sleep-walking housekeeper (Pene Greenleaf). Trying to unravel the plot for the ~~murder~~ were Sheldon Harley (Dick Falke) and Newton Cooper (Phil Maggard) the laughable sheriff. Jules (Frank Rosenthal) is a negro servant who provides the laughs as well as the mystery.

All ends well with a happy romance between Miss Baily (Sandra Brooks) and Sheldon Harley.

Eeks! — watch the knife

Things really pop when the president of Ceder Hill (Sally Smith) finds that Lotus Smith (John Lusher) the rich student who is to join her college, is a boy. All would be fine except that Ceder Hill is a girls' school.

Lotus is a real cowboy from Skeleton Hole, Wyoming. He causes a riot among the coeds. Pauline Pooley (Jacque Robbins) and Geraldine Carr (Manuella Silva) are two teachers who have very different ideas about what is best for the students.

Love interest is provided by Emily Manning (Beryl Butler), a scholarship student, and Lotus, also by Mrs. Cotgate-Brewster (Phyllis Geier), Lotus's millionaire grandmother, and Homer Quackenbush (Terry Mauck), the school janitor.

All ends well for everyone!

Mr. Charlene May directed the play with Mr. Paul Thompson assisting with scenery and lighting effects.

Emily and Ruby come to town.

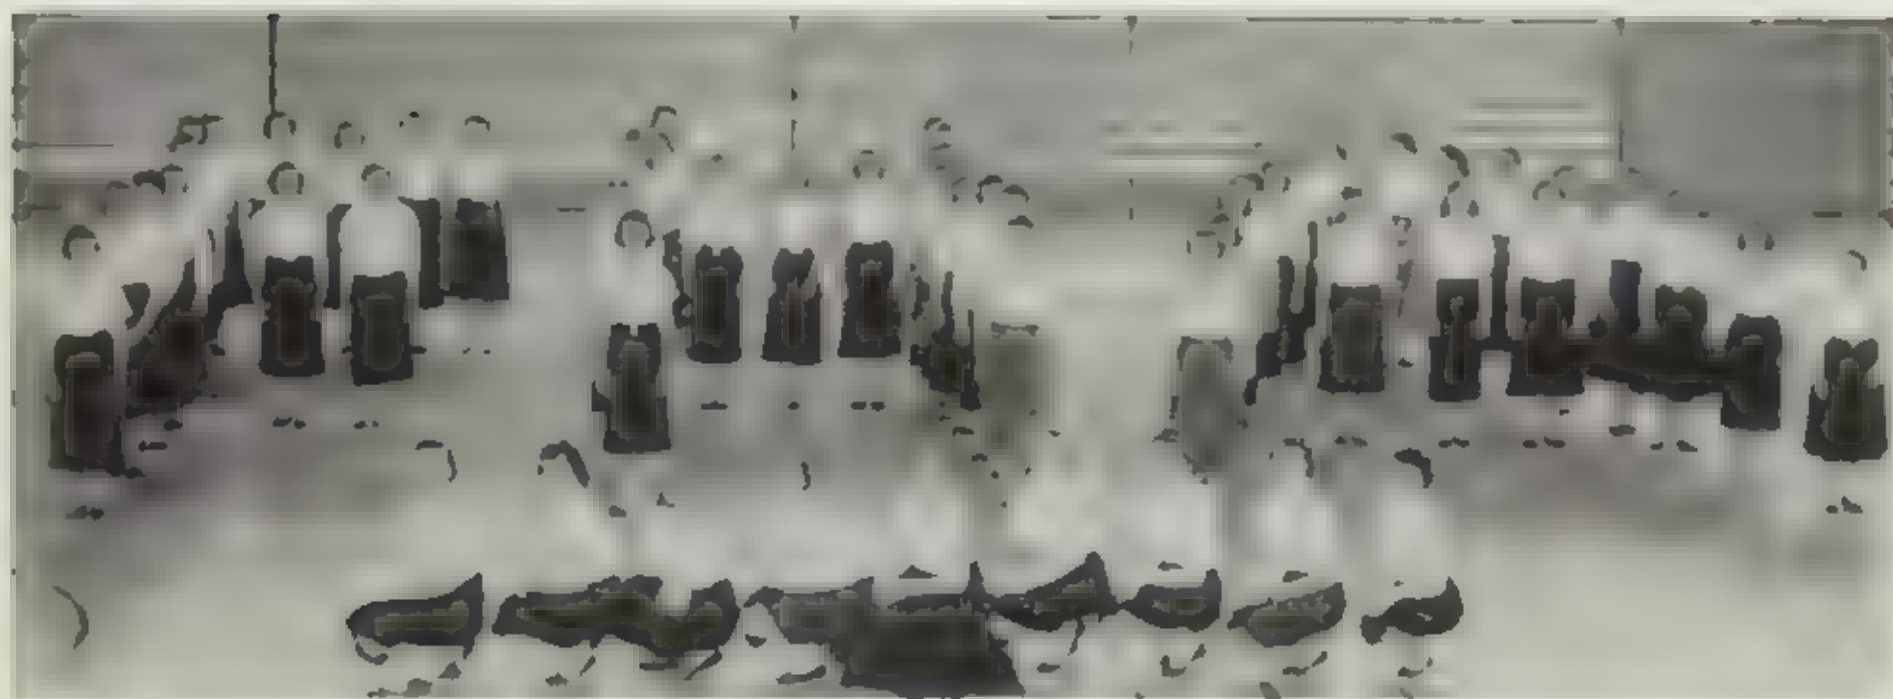

Miss May and Miss Pooley stand aghast
as Lotus says "Howdy Pardner."

Homer and Grandma are headed west!

BOYS' SENIOR CHORUS

They worked hard which paid off. Our boys' chorus was a thing of which we are proud. Besides performing at all three concerts, they also put on some programs for various dinners and banquets.

The concert ended on a high note with the song "This Year I'll Be a Star" and a final song with a beautiful solo.

Graduation time, and you are standing on the threshold of a new life . . . to you, a new world . . . and a world which you hope to make better by your work and efforts.

Our American democracy needs young men and women like you. Our system will continue to be the best system only so long as we keep government the servant and not the master.

Do your part. It's your greatest privilege and duty.
